COME FIT TO THE TASK

Come fit to the task, with an eye that can see. The goal in the distance, whatever it be. Have your brain at its keenest, your strength at its best. And your glad spirit eager to get at the test. Be ready for service, not weary and glum. Too worn out to battle the trials that come. But, with eyes bright and shining, to duty advance. You can conquer by giving yourself a fair chance.

Don't burn out your strength in life's early days. Too many have gone down to failure that way. Don't think you can sit up too late in the night. And come to your fall at the dawn of your night. Don't think that your work doesn't call for your best. Or that yours is a goal you can reach. Neither glory nor fortune await you off time. If you yourself you are always unfair.

The hand that's steady, the eye that is clear. And the action that resents when to action it's stirred. Are ever the victims of failure and fear. They are the ones who solve problems, pleasing appear. And the men who succeed are the ones who are ready for all that life gives them to do. For a man that success of a man ever asks. Is that he shall be ready and fit for its tasks. (Copyright, 1919, by Edgar A. Guest.)

DRAFT NOT COMPLETE

Commission Works Late at Night in Perfecting Final Form.

HOLD TO THE POLISH FORM

Indications Point to Opening Corridor; May Send Troops.

By The Associated Press.

PARIS, March 24.—The result of the deliberations of the supreme council today are not likely to be stated in the official communiqués and probably will take form in their effect on the conference work, particularly with respect to reparations, frontiers and the league of nations. The advocates of the league of nations maintain that it is in no way retarding the progress of the peace treaty, as the league meetings are held at night and are nearing a conclusion, whereas the obstacle to the treaty are on questions of principle, in which the premises thus far have been unable to secure an agreement. The war council again today dealt with Poland, which question is close to settlement. It is understood that the recommendations of the Cambon committee for a Polish corridor across east Prussia to the Baltic will prevail, despite the objections raised by Premier Lloyd George. The Polish divisions at present in France will probably proceed to the Baltic coast, and may land at Königsberg, instead of Danzig, in order to avoid a clash with the Germans over Danzig. The league of nations commission resumed its sessions at 8:30 o'clock tonight. President Wilson presiding. The commission is expected to sit until midnight. It was not believed that the large number of amendments would be completed and the revision of the covenant concluded without another meeting. The amendments have been divided into three classes: First, those by neutrals; second, those by an American senator; third, those framed by President Wilson, Colonel House and Lord Robert Cecil. The last named group includes all points which the framers of the instrument believe will clarify its meaning and settle all questions in all quarters. The text of the speeches of Senators Lodge and Knox and the main points of the recent debate between Senator Lodge and Dr. Lowell are being gone over in shaping these changes.

SOCIAL DEMOCRATS ASK FULL PARDON FOR DEBS

NEW YORK, March 24.—A full pardon for Eugene V. Debs, former socialist presidential candidate, who is now under a ten years' prison sentence for violation of the espionage law, and amnesty for all persons imprisoned for "honest" expressions of opinion against America's cause in the war, were urged in a petition carried today to President Wilson by the executive committee of the social democratic league of America. The signers included Charles Edward Russell, John Spargo, A. J. Phelps, Stokes, Charles Perkins, Guilan, Chester M. Wright and Lippincott Sinclair. The release of Debs advocated on the ground of his advanced years, "high moral character," and years of devoted service in the cause of human freedom, notwithstanding his violation of law.

Revolution Accomplished

Toronto, March 24.—From Belgrade, Berlin and Copenhagen, related to different features of the movement, each, however, referred to the revolution as an accomplished fact. The Berlin dispatch declared that the new Magyar government had announced that hostilities were to begin last Friday night, but they did not state against whom the hostilities were ordered, or whether they had actually begun. The Havana dispatch threw some light on the personnel of the new government. The appointment of Bela Kun as minister of foreign affairs was particularly noteworthy, as he was for some time an aide de camp of Leon Trotsky in Russia. The new minister of war was described as a former member of the second army, who was once punished for insubordination in military affairs.

Capital Sees Setting Up of Neutral Zones as Cause of Hungarian Crisis.

State Department Officials Doubt If Bolshevism Gains Among Peasants.

WILL HASTEN PEACE TREATY

Senator Hitchcock Thinks the Powers Will Agree Soon—Need of League Seen.

WASHINGTON, March 24.—Advices to the state department today from three widely separated European sources tended to increase the anxiety of officials over the situation in Hungary. The bolshevik elements apparently had assumed complete control of the government of Budapest with a threat of renewal of hostilities.

There was no indication as to the extent of the control of the new regime beyond the capital and in the absence of this and other details officials were reluctant to discuss the situation at length. It appeared from today's advices, however, that the crisis resulted from the line of demarcation established by the peace conference in circumscribing the territory of Hungary and the general economic situation in Budapest.

Territory Causes Trouble

The recognition of the extreme claims of the Rumanians and Czech-Slovakia and the establishment of neutral zones between these lines and the limits allowed to Hungary, which zone was to be held by the French until the final peace treaty was completed, was said to have been more than the old Hungarian government was able to accept and remain in power. It was suggested that the fact that these lines were not to be the final limitations of the new Hungarian state was not appreciated by the Hungarians, who apparently proceeded upon the theory that they were to lose even the neutral zone occupied by the French.

The safety of foreigners was a feature of the news that appeared checking to state department officials. A number of Americans are in what was formerly Austria-Hungary on various missions for the peace conference and the international food commission, but most of them are in Vienna.

Will Hasten Peace

Senator Hitchcock, chairman of the senate foreign relations committee, in a statement referred to the situation in Hungary, saying: "I believe it would do much to wipe out differences between the nations represented at the peace conference and would aid in bringing about a final solution of the league of nations plan."

State department officials who are familiar with conditions heretofore existing in Hungary were surprised by the rapidity with which bolsheviks swept into control in Budapest and were inclined to doubt that it had succeeded in reaching out of the cities to include the peasant agricultural class. The peasants were said to have been well satisfied with their treatment under the land owning class and consequently would not be fertile field for the propagation of bolshevik theories. The official suggestion that the inclusion of peasants in the new government called the "revolutionary government of workers, peasants and soldiers councils," instead of, as in Russia, the government of the "workers and soldiers councils," might be an attempt to persuade the peasants to join the movement.

STANDARD WILLING TO AID

Proposed Amalgamation Is Meeting With Favor Among Those Already on Ground at Chicago.

By W. H. PECK.

CHICAGO, March 24.—The advance guard of what now has the appearance of being the largest convention of oil men ever held is already here for the meeting which begins Tuesday. A few of the influential members of the oil industry association are here, including President McGuire, who presided at a similar meeting held at the same place last year, which meeting was marked by a big attendance of the leaders of the war service board, including A. C. Bedford and M. L. Riquena. This board will meet here Wednesday.

Speaking of the proposed plan for an amalgamation of interests under an advisory board, Mr. McGuire says: "The Standard is willing to cooperate and surely no independent marketer or jobber would be crazy enough to refuse to join hands with it."

Mr. McGuire had a brother in the war service board in Washington last year who represented the marketers and jobbers. All the leading newspapers are represented here by special correspondents and evidence of the importance of the week's gathering is fully realized. The Apollo club from Tulsa is momentarily expected and will find it an easy matter to line up the delegates they got at opinion from the South of Tulsa has a lot of badges with that inscription ready.

Force of 70,000 on March; Name Council for Entire Country.

By The Associated Press.

PARIS, March 24.—President Wilson met Premier Clemenceau, Lloyd George and Orlando at the foreign office at 3 o'clock this afternoon for an hour's conference before the assembling of the supreme war council.

Both the conference and the supreme war council were held amid a feeling of concern over the revolutionary developments in eastern Europe and the lack of definite results thus far reached in Paris conference in stabilizing European conditions.

President Wilson was known to regard the situation as serious and as calling for energetic action toward hastening the work of the conference to completion, and there was reason to believe that this would be one of the main subjects before meetings rather than the formal questions on the program.

FRESH AGITATION REPORTED IN GERMANY

COPENHAGEN, March 24.—Karl Radek, the leading Russian bolshevik agent in Germany, who was arrested February 13 in connection with the Spartacan uprising, has been released by the German government, according to a Berlin dispatch today.

The dispatch reports fresh agitation by the German Spartacists, coincident with the Hungarian revolution and reports that under these circumstances the release of Radek has created a bad impression.

The authorities, the dispatch adds, say that Radek entered Germany in a perfectly regular manner and that he had no reason for keeping him under arrest. Some results of the new Spartacan agitation reported are a serious strike in Lubek, riots in Stettin and the threat of a general strike in Breslau.

T. BRADY LEAGUE AFTER NEW JURY

Despite Protests of Leading Citizens Move Started for Another Session.

PETITIONS ARE CIRCULATED

68 Out of 300 at Tatebrady Taxpayers' League Affix Signatures.

STORMY MEETING IS HELD

Additional Burden on County Is Opposed—Munroe Is Strongly Defended.

Tate Brady is going to have another grand jury session.

This was decided at a meeting of the Tate Brady Taxpayers' league of Tulsa and Sand Springs at a meeting at the county house last night.

Some of the best citizens present spoke against burdening the taxpayers with the expense of another grand jury following so shortly upon the adjournment of a former inquiry, but Tate Brady declared the motion carried and petitions were put in circulation at once.

Three hundred citizens were present and 68 of them signed the petitions for a grand jury at the secretary's desk, among the first being Jeff Chapman. Mr. Brady explained, however, that there were other petitions being circulated at Sand Springs, Collinsville and Skiatook and that 1,500 names would be obtained before the petitions were presented to the court. Plenty of time would be taken for this, he said.

Tate Brady opened the meeting and explained its purpose. Tate Brady wrote and read the declaration of grievances upon which the alleged need of a grand jury is based. Tate Brady replied personally to each speaker who opposed the movement and then Tate Brady, when the discussion and interest were at its height, suddenly and mandatorily took the prerogative to declare the meeting adjourned while several men were talking for recognition.

"Grand Jurors Are Cheap"

Someone asked Mr. Brady what the last grand jury cost the taxpayers of Tulsa county.

"I don't know what it cost, but it is the cheapest thing the taxpayer can get for his money," responded Mr. Brady.

J. E. Ingram said that he had been in the county clerk's office and knew that the cost of grand juries were within the limit of expenses. The last grand jury, he said, was composed of the best men in the county.

"It strikes me," said Mr. Ingram, "that it would be much cheaper for the taxpayers to appoint a committee to audit the books and check the public work where irregularities are suspected. They would not be confined to the grand jury room and could do the work much more factually. Appoint good men to go into all these things. Let them get the facts and take them to the county attorney and he will prosecute the guilty ones. We don't need another grand jury. The last one cost $10,000."

Tate Brady replied to Mr. Ingram. There must be another grand jury. Too much to-a-f-t.

P. B. Parr said: "We haven't got enough evidence to call a grand jury yet. Let's don't go off half cocked like we did before. You can't expect the grand jury to go out and get evidence. The citizen must first get the facts, and then put them up to the county attorney." He said that he had inquired yesterday if any steps had been taken to fix the responsibility and correct the irregularities in connection with the laying of sewers in Oklahoma and Forest Park and had been informed by the city engineer that a report would be made to the city council on Tuesday.
